BYLAWS
OF THE
THE HERE AND NOW PROJECT

ARTICLE I Offices

The principal office and place of business of the corporation in the state of Washington shall be located at 4917 154th Ave. Ct. E, Sumner, Washington 98390.

ARTICLE II
Board of Directors

2.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. In addition to its other powers and authority, the Board shall have the full power, except as prohibited by the terms of any gift, devise, bequest or other transfer, in its sole discretion, to change the form of any investment and, for that or other purposes of the corporation, to dispose of any property held by the corporation. Directors shall be selected for, among other reasons, their interest and ability to carry out the purposes of the corporation and their other special training or abilities. Directors need not be residents of the state of Washington.

2.2 Number of Directors. The Board of Directors of this corporation shall consist of one or more directors, as determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in these Bylaws. No decrease, however, shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director unless such director resigns or is removed in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws. The corporation shall have no members.

2.3 Tenure. Unless the director resigns or is removed in accordance with these Bylaws, each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of directors and until a successor is elected and qualified.

2.4 Annual and Other Regular Meetings. The annual meeting shall be held on the first week during the month of March at such time as may be determined by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this bylaw. The Board of Directors may specify by resolution the time and place, either within or without the State of Washington, for holding any other regular meetings of the Board of Directors.

2.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary, or any director. Notice of special meetings of the Board of Directors stating the date, time and place thereof shall be given at least ten (10) days but no more than sixty (60) days prior to the date set for such meeting by the person or persons authorized to call such meeting, or by the Secretary at the direction of the person or persons authorized to call such meeting. The notice may be oral or written. Written notice is effective upon dispatch if such notice is sent to the director's address, telephone number, or other number appearing on the records of the corporation. If no place for such meeting is designated in the notice thereof, the meeting shall be held at the principal office of the corporation.

2.6 Waiver of Notice of Special Meeting. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director of the corporation pursuant to applicable law, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the director, entitled to notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice. Any director may waive notice of any meeting at any time. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully convened. Unless otherwise required by law, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

2.7 Quorum. A majority of the number of directors specified in or fixed in accordance with these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business at any meeting of directors.

2.8 Manner of Acting. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the question is one upon which a different vote is required by express provision of law of the state of Washington or of the Articles of Incorporation or of these Bylaws.

2.9 Participation by Conference Telephone. Directors may participate in a regular or special meeting of the Board by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating can hear each other during the meeting and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

2.10 Presumption of Assent. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless such director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless such director shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or within a reasonable time thereafter. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

2.11 Action by Board Without a Meeting. Any action permitted or required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed, either before or after the action taken, by all the directors of the corporation. Action taken by written consent is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a later effective date.

2.12 Board Committees. The Board of Directors may by resolution designate from among its members an executive committee or other committees, each of which must have two (2) or more members and shall be governed by the same rules regarding meetings, action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as applied to the Board of Directors. To the extent provided in such resolutions, each such committee shall have and may exercise the authority of the Board of Directors, except as limited by applicable law. The designation of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not relieve the Board of Directors, or any members thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

2.13 Committee Types. Committees of the Board of Directors may consist of, but are not limited to, (i) a finance committee charged with receiving, holding, administering, investing, disposing and disbursing all funds and properties of the corporation; (ii) a nominating committee charged with nominating potential directors; (iii) an investment committee charged with overseeing the corporation's investment decisions; and (iv) an executive committee charged with acting on behalf of the Board between Board meetings.

2.14 Resignation; Removal. Any director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors of the corporation, or by giving oral notice at any meeting of the directors. A Director may be removed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors with or without cause.

2.15 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

2.16 Compensation. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the directors may be paid the actual expenses, if any, for attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or committee thereof, provided that the expenses are reasonable.

ARTICLE III Officers

3.4 Removal. Any officer appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by majority vote of the Board of Directors, with or without cause. The removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties, in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine.
